

CONTENTS

Introduction to the Seventh Edition	xi
1 The Law and the Legal System	1
The Meaning of “the Law”	1
Laws: Statutes, Constitutions, Regulations, and Judicial Opinions	4
The Legal System	7
The Function of Law: Legal Rights	10
Perspectives on the Law	13
Study Notes	14
2 The Power of the State Governments in Matters Affecting Health Care	17
Federal Constitutional Authority	17
State Constitutional Authority	18
Limitations on Governmental Authority	20
The Broad Range of State Authority in Matters Relating to the Public’s Health	25
The State’s Police Powers: Mandatory Helmet Laws and Other Safety Legislation	25
The State’s Police Powers: Compulsory Sterilization	28
The State’s Police Powers: Compulsory Medical Treatment	31
Conclusion	34
Study Notes	35
3 Government Power and the Right to Privacy	47
The Origins of the Right to Privacy	47
The Constitutional Right to Privacy and the Use of Contraceptives by Married People	48
The Constitutional Right to Privacy and the Use of Contraceptives by Single People	51

	The Constitutional Right to Privacy: The 1973 Abortion Cases	54
	The Right to Privacy and Applications of the 1973 Abortion Decisions . .	58
	The Right to Privacy and the Implications of the Casey Decision	64
	The Right to Privacy and the State's Ability to Regulate Homosexual Activity: Lawrence v. Texas	73
	The Right to Privacy and the Right to Die Cases	77
	Conclusion	85
	Study Notes	89
4	The Constitutional Discretion of the State and Federal Governments to Limit or Condition Social Welfare Benefits	99
	The Development of Social Welfare Programs in the United States	99
	Constitutional Restrictions on Legislative Discretion: The Evolution of the Judicial Entitlement	103
	The Two-Tier Test of Equal Protection and Government Funding for Abortions	108
	The Two-Tier Test and Governmental Discretion to Limit or Condition Spending Programs	114
	Conclusion	121
	Study Notes	124
5	Government Regulation of Health Care Providers and Payers	131
	An Overview of Government Regulation of Health Care	131
	Government Health Planning Programs	137
	The National Health Planning and Resources Development Act of 1974	140
	Hospital Rate-Setting and Reimbursement Reform Programs	142
	Government Regulation of Health Insurers and Payers	144
	Political Constraints on Government Regulation and Control of Health Care	148
	Constitutional Constraints on the Government Regulation of Health Care	150
	Procedural Limits on the Exercise of Governmental Authority	164
	Conclusion	168
	Study Notes	169
6	The Scope of Discretion of Administrative Agencies in Matters Affecting Health and Health Care	181
	Case Study: The Rule-Making Discretion of the Occupational Safety and Health Administration	185

Case Study: DHHS's Administrative Authority to Impose Cost-Limiting Restrictions in Medicare Reimbursement Decisions	196
Conclusion	203
Study Notes	206
7 The Fraud and Abuse Laws	215
Introduction to Fraud and Abuse Laws	216
Federal Laws Prohibiting Kickbacks and Other Service-Inducing Arrangements in Publicly Funded Programs	217
Safe Harbors, Fraud Alerts, and Other Administrative Efforts to Clarify the Interpretation of the Federal Fraud and Abuse Laws	221
The Stark Amendments to the Federal Fraud and Abuse Laws	224
The Civil False Claims Act	225
The Federal Civil Monetary Penalties Law	230
Other Federal Laws Authorizing the Criminal Prosecution of Fraud and Abuse	232
State and Private Third-Party Payers' Efforts to Prevent Fraud and Abuse	234
Conclusion	235
Study Notes	236
8 The Antitrust Laws: Government Enforcement of Competition	243
The Federal Anti-Trust Laws	245
Judicial Recognition of the Applicability of the Antitrust Laws to Health Care	248
The Application of the Antitrust Principles to Health Care	254
Antitrust and Staff Privilege Decisions	265
Antitrust and Hospital Mergers	270
Conclusion	278
Study Notes	279
9 Malpractice: Liability for Negligence in the Delivery and Financing of Health Care	289
Legal Rights that Define Relationships Between Private Individuals: Property, Contracts, and Torts	290
Negligence in the Delivery and Financing of Health Care: The Essential Issues	293
Negligence: Liability in the Institutional Setting	300
Liability of Health Maintenance Organizations and Other Health Plans	308

Liability of Providers for Denial of Access to Medical Care	313
Hospitals and the “No Duty” Rule	315
Conclusion	320
Study Notes	323
10 Health Care Business Law: Legal Considerations in the Structuring of Health Care Entities and their Transactions	333
The Legal Structure of Business Entities: Sole Proprietorships, Partnerships, and Corporations	335
Federal and State Taxation of Business Entities	341
The Special Problems of Tax-Exempt Health Care Organizations	343
Other Legal Considerations Affecting the Structure of Health Care Organizations and Their Transactions	346
Legal Problems in Transactions that Convert Nonprofit Institutions into For-Profit Entities	349
Analyzing the Business and Legal Consequences of a Complicated Health Care Transaction	352
Conclusion	356
Study Notes	358
List of Cases	367
Index	379
About the Author	000