CHARLES R. EVANS, FACHE, NOMINATED CHAIRMAN-ELECT OF AMERICAN COLLEGE OF HEALTHCARE EXECUTIVES

CHICAGO, December 12, 2007—Charles R. Evans, FACHE, president and CEO, International Health Services Group, Alpharetta, Ga., has been nominated as the 2008–2009 Chairman-Elect of the American College of Healthcare Executives, an international professional society of more than 30,000 healthcare executives.

The election will take place at the Council of Regents Meeting preceding ACHE's 51st Congress on Healthcare Leadership in Chicago, March 10–13, 2008. If elected, Evans will serve the first part of a three-year term in ACHE's consecutive chairmanship offices: Chairman-Elect, Chairman and Immediate Past-Chairman.

Board certified in healthcare management as an ACHE Fellow, Evans previously served as an ACHE Governor from 2004 to 2007.

NEWS RELEASE

American College of Healthcare Executives

The American College of Healthcare Executives is an international professional society of more than 30,000 healthcare executives who lead hospitals, healthcare systems and other healthcare organizations. ACHE is known for its prestigious credentialing and educational programs and its annual Congress on Healthcare Leadership, which draws more than 4,000 participants each year. ACHE is also known for its journals, the Journal of Healthcare Management and Frontiers of Health Services Management and its magazine, Healthcare Executive, as well as ground-breaking research and career development and public policy programs. ACHE's publishing division, Health Administration Press, is one of the largest publishers of books and journals on all aspects of health services management in addition to textbooks for use in college and university courses. Through such efforts, ACHE works toward its goal of being the premier professional society for healthcare leaders by providing exceptional value to its members.
