The American College of Healthcare Executives is an international professional society of more than 40,000 healthcare executives who lead hospitals, healthcare systems, and other healthcare organizations.

ACHE is known for its prestigious FACHE® credential, signifying board certification in healthcare management, and its educational programs – including the annual Congress on Healthcare leadership, which draws more than 4,000 participants each year. ACHE's established network of more than 80 chapters provides access to networking, education, and career development at the local level.

In addition, ACHE is known for its magazine, Healthcare Executive, and its journals, the Journal of Healthcare Management and Frontiers of Health Services Management, as well as groundbreaking research, career development, and public policy programs. ACHE's publishing division, Health Administration Press, is one of the largest publishers of books and journals on all aspects of health service management, including textbooks for use in college and university courses.

Through such efforts, ACHE works toward its goal of being the premier professional society for healthcare executives dedicated to improving healthcare delivery.

Call (312) 424-9400 for membership information, or visit the Join ACHE section of the ACHE website at ache.org.

Smash the Bottleneck: Fixing Patient Flow for Better Care (and a Better Bottom Line)

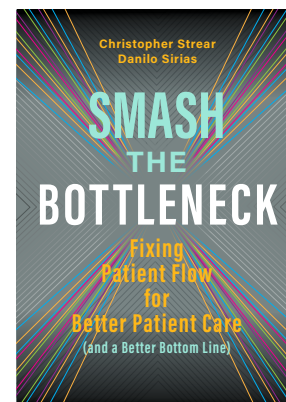

Christopher Strear, MD, FACEP, and Danilo Sirias, PhD

Learn a concrete methodology for getting to the root of patient-flow problems and addressing them—quickly. The book highlights a continuous improvement methodology, which emphasizes identifying, optimizing, and breaking down bottlenecks to improve overall system performance. The authors tie this methodology to healthcare delivery from a practitioner's point of view, providing numerous examples of common health system bottlenecks to illustrate how the methodology can be applied.
